

Subscription & Order Management

PRESTIGE
working with initiative

Our subscription and order management software is a sales and business management tool. It retains valuable customer data and sales records which can be used to inform decisions for future planning, marketing, upselling and cross-selling.

It is a flexible system with capacity to modify to your requirements and can accommodate the following:

- National and international subscriptions
- Multi-lingual and multi-currency requirements
- Credit card, PayPal or direct debit
- Renewal scheduling and analysis
- Discounting and promotional pricing
- Free gifts
- Auto email
- Predictive pricing

Our subscription service can be applied to most products but we typically work with directories, magazines, newsletters, books and journals.
